

DREAM DESTINATION SERIES

Scotland

Scotland, a place where rugged mountains meet serene lochs, where centuries of history come alive through castles and ancient ruins, and where the warmth of a dram of whisky can melt away the chill of a Highland breeze. Whether you're hiking through the misty hills, delving into the mysteries of Scottish folklore, or simply enjoying a cozy pub with a view, Scotland promises a journey full of adventure, culture, and awe-inspiring beauty.

Edinburgh, the country's historic and cultural heart. This city, with its stunning medieval Old Town and Georgian New Town, offers a delightful blend of history, architecture, and contemporary flair. Stroll down the Royal Mile and explore the charming alleys and hidden courtyards. Tour Edinburgh castle and view the crown jewels of Scotland.

Visit the Scottish Highlands and take a boat tour on Loch Ness. If you are lucky, maybe you will get to spot the elusive Nessie. Visit the Eilean Donan Castle. This fairytale-like fortress has been used in films like James Bond's The World Is Not Enough and Highlander.

Scotland's largest city, Glasgow, is a cultural powerhouse, known for its lively arts scene, exceptional shopping, and friendly locals. Explore the magnificent Glasgow Cathedral, a stunning example of Gothic architecture, and then take a walk through the Necropolis, a Victorian cemetery that offers panoramic views of the city.

Known as the Home of Golf, St. Andrews is a small coastal town with a rich history and plenty of charm. For golf enthusiasts, the Old Course at St. Andrews is a must-play. It's one of the oldest golf courses in the world and offers stunning views of the coastline. Explore the ruins of St. Andrews Cathedral, once the largest church in Scotland. The cathedral's history dates back to the 12th century.

From the mystical landscapes of the Highlands to the vibrant streets of Glasgow and Edinburgh, Scotland is a country that captivates and inspires. Whether you're hiking the hills, exploring ancient castles, or enjoying a pint of local whisky, Scotland's beauty and charm will leave you spellbound. Schedule an appointment today with Harp Travel Co. to start your unforgettable journey through the land of legends and landscapes.
